

Last night of the theme and a match in two days. Watch, do not teach.

ON THE GROUND

- 10 cones, one loop about 25 by 12 metres
- 25 discs inside the loop
- A hurl each

Set it up before the first group arrives and leave it for all three.

One loop about 70 metres round, everybody running the same way

0 to 2 Wake up game: shadow jog in threes

- Threes, one behind the other, jogging anywhere inside the loop.
- The leader picks the pace and the direction and the other two copy him exactly.
- Change the leader every forty seconds. Tell them the leader may not sprint.

2 to 9 Movement: the loop with a hurl

- Two goes of ninety seconds at talking pace with a hurl in hand.
- Two minutes walking between, and the walk is part of it.
- Stand in one place and let them come past you. Say nothing.

9 to 15 Body shape: the plank

- In pairs. One holds the plank, the other counts out loud to twenty and watches his back.
- Swap. Three each.
- The counter has one job: "Is his backside up or down?"

15 to 17 Finish: who could still talk

- Walk them in.
- Ask three boys: "On the second run, could you still talk?"
- Tell them the theme changes on Tuesday and it is sprinting.

Coach one thing: Nothing. Find out who has learned the pace.

- A boy who now paces himself without being told. That is the theme having worked.

Lashing rain. The plank becomes the sit, held for twenty seconds.
